OUR NEW STUDIO IN LISBON

We opened offices in Lisbon and Singapore, bringing us closer to the fastest-growing regions we serve. Both teams were fully staffed within six months, and regional revenue more than tripled.

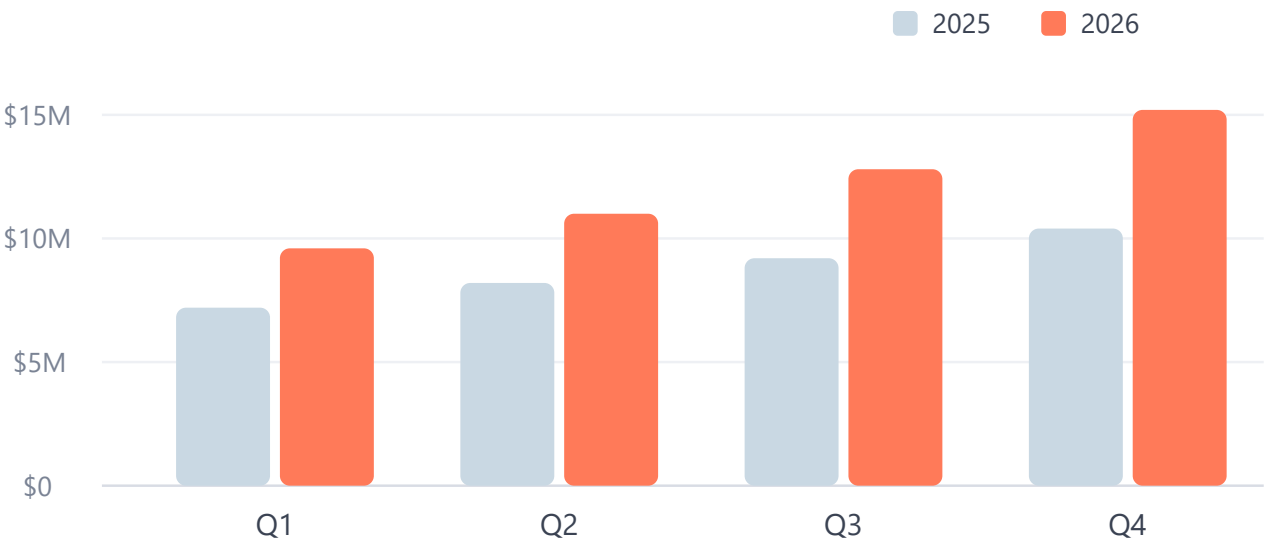

Our platform team rebuilt the core sync engine from the ground up. Customers now see changes in under a second, and infrastructure costs fell by a fifth even as usage grew.

> “We set out to build tools people genuinely enjoy using. This year, our customers told us we're getting there.”

— Maya Okafor, Chief Executive Officer

Financial highlights

Revenue grew in every quarter, led by our enterprise plans and strong adoption in Asia-Pacific.

METRIC	2025	2026	CHANGE
Revenue	$34.9M	$48.2M	+38%
Gross margin	71%	76%	+5 pts
Operating expenses	$21.4M	$26.0M	+21%
Net income	$3.1M	$8.7M	+181%
Cash and equivalents	$19.8M	$31.5M	+59%

Operating expenses grew more slowly than revenue for the third consecutive year. We continued to invest in research and development, which accounted for 34% of operating spend, while sales efficiency improved across all regions.

The road ahead

Next year we will focus on three priorities: deeper integrations, a faster mobile experience and expanding our partner network.

1. Integrations

Customers connect an average of six tools to Halcyon. We will double the number of native integrations and open our automation API to every plan.

2. Mobile

A rebuilt mobile app will bring offline editing and instant sync to phones and tablets in the first half of the year.

3. Partners

We will grow our reseller and consulting partner programme to 40 countries, with dedicated training and co-marketing support.

> Our goal for 2027: help 25,000 teams do their best work.
